35. (Unclassified - JEC) LEGISLATION Called Bob Hull, at the Department of State, and he informed me the high one retirement legislation is currently under study at OMB. In addition, the Civil Service Commission is preparing cost estimates of the effect of the legislation. Mr. Hull was told by both OMB and CSC that it will be at least a week before anything is submitted to Congress. He also said that OMB had informed him that all letters on the Hatch Act had to be in by Friday, 30 September.
